PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Born and raised a coach's kid, I grew up on the field and in the gym, learning how to motivate people, push through hard days, and build a team culture where everyone shows up for each other. That foundation carried me through being an NCAA Division I student-athlete at Georgia Southern and through a 3.5+ year sales career where I was promoted into leadership, trained and mentored new reps, and hit 110%+ of goal month after month. I speak the language of fitness: work ethic, energy, consistency, and community. I lead from the front, on the sales floor or folding towels after a session.

ATHLETE & COACH'S KID

- NCAA Division I Student-Athlete, Georgia Southern University: Years of discipline, resilience, high-pressure performance, and showing up before anyone else.
- Raised in a Coaching Family: Learned leadership, motivation, and mentorship from the ground up, how to build people up and how to get a team to buy in.
- Fitness Lifestyle: I live the routine, consistency, accountability, and the belief that small daily habits win. I belong in a wellness environment.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Cyberbit (Cybersecurity SaaS) | Atlanta, GA / Remote Sales Operations & Business Development Specialist | June 2023 – April 2025 * Generated $1.25M+ in qualified sales pipeline through a repeatable, multi-channel sales motion. * Coached and supported teammates daily on messaging and execution; partnered with leadership on strategy. * Kept immaculate records and CRM hygiene, the same standard I'd keep for members, inventory, and cleanliness.
